Prohibition Licences II/52

File No.

Gen. 194 e.

842-B

Legal Department.

Section 26(c) of the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949, provides that the Director may grant licences on such conditions as the State Government deems fit to impose, for construction and working of a distillery or brewary. Under section 53 of the Act read with section 52, all licences granted under the Act shall be in such form and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed. The expression "prescribed" has been defined in section 2(34) to mean prescribed by the rules, orders or regulations under this Act. If, therefore, a rule is made prescribing the form of the licence and the conditions subject to which it shall be granted, Government will be deemed to have approved of the conditions as required by section 26(c) in so far as they relate to the working of the distillery. A draft notification embodying the requisite rule is sent herewith.
